

5th Annual

BRNET Think Tank 2015

Multi-disciplinary Approaches to Understanding Bullying

Hosted by BRNET & Boston University's School of Education

We are pleased to invite you to join us in Beantown for the 5th Annual Think Tank on bullying. BRNET promotes and assists international collaboration among bullying and peer victimization researchers. Please join us for another amazing opportunity to collaborate and discuss key topics in bullying.

Scholars interested in participating in the Think Tank will need to register at <http://www.bu.edu/sed/thinktank/> by May 1st. Participants are expected to cover their own travel and accommodation costs, but participation in the event is free, including dinner at Legal Sea Foods.

In this pamphlet, you will find information on the Think Tank schedule, directions, things to do in Boston, and local accommodations.

We hope to see you there!

Boston Attractions

Museum of Fine Art

Visit this museum boasting nearly 450,000 works of art! Open since 1876, the MFA is one of the world's most comprehensive art museums.

Duck Boat Tour

See Boston from both land and water on a W.W.II style amphibious landing vehicle! You will not only learn interesting facts about Boston, but you will be visiting many of our historic landmarks.

Freedom Trail

Walk along Boston's Freedom Trail, a 2.5-mile, red-lined route that leads you to 16 historically significant spots. All tours are led by an 18th century costumed guide, who will tell you the stories of the brave men and women who helped form our nation.

Fenway Park Tour

Take a tour of Fenway Park, the home of Red Sox legends, like Williams, Yaz, Fisk, and Rice! Fenway is where dreams are born and traditions come to life.
